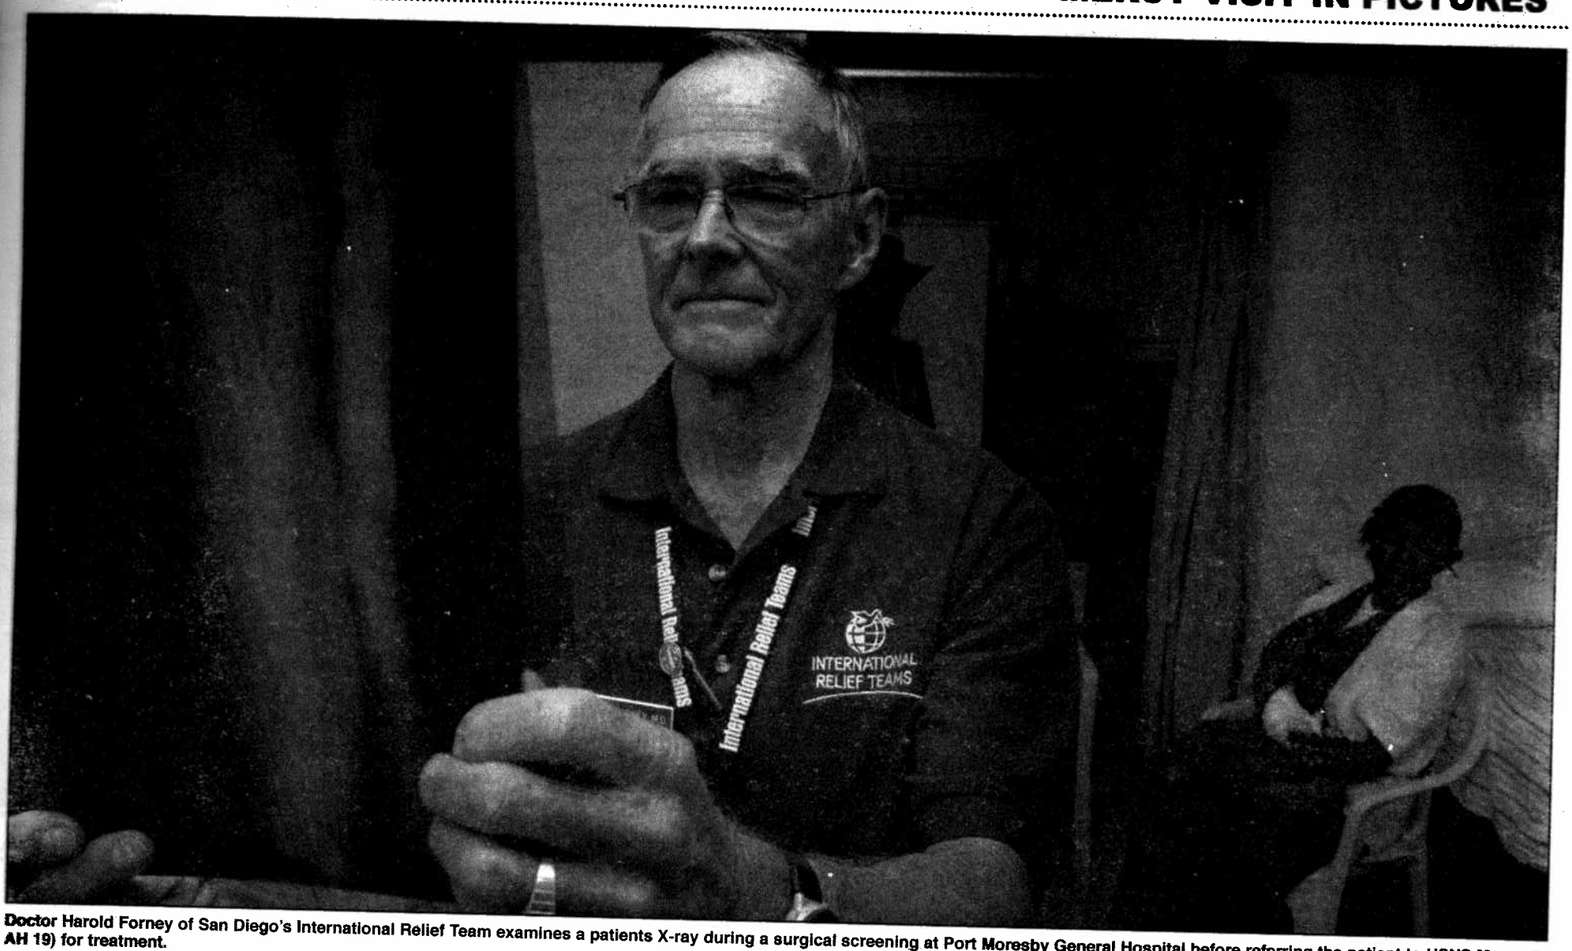
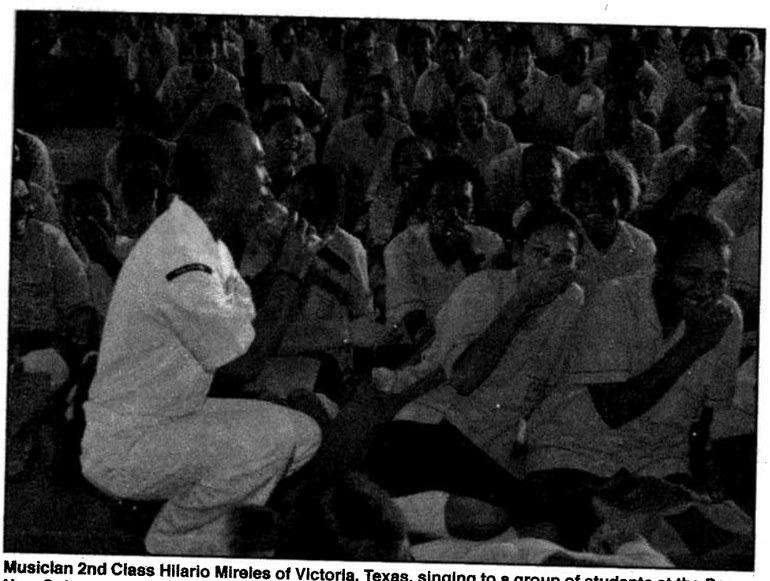
MERCY VISIT IN PICTURES



Doctor Harold Forney of San Diego's International Relief Team examines a patients X-ray during a surgical screening at Port Moresby General Hospital before referring the patient to USNS Mercy (T-AH 19) for treatment.

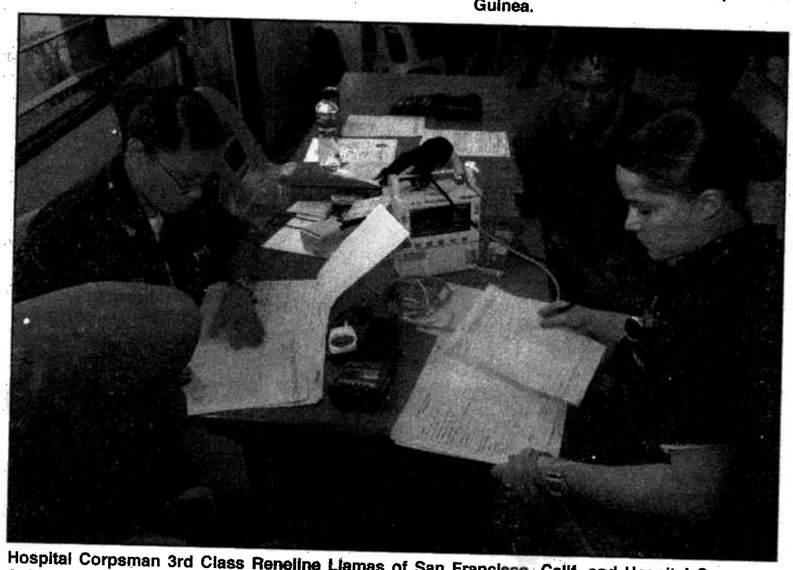


Musician 2nd Class Hilario Mireles of Victoria, Texas, singing to a group of students at the Papua New Guinea national high school during a concert performed by the Pacific Fleet Band.

Musician 2nd Class Melinda Gaines of San Antonio, Texas, dancing with a local student at the Papua New Guinea National high school during a concert performed by the Pacific Fleet Band.

The Honorable Leslie Rowe, United States Ambassador to Papua New Guinea, delivering the initial remarks at an opening ceremony welcoming Pacific Partnership to Basilick Port, Papua New Guinea.

The Papua New Guinea Minister of Health, Sasa Zibe, speaking at an opening ceremony marking Pacific Partnerships arrival in Papua New Guinea. Pacific Partnership continues to improve bilateral relations between the U.S. and the host nations, demonstrating continued commitment to work together to address mutual issues and concerns.



Hospital Corpsman 3rd Class Reneline Llamas of San Francisco, Calif. and Hospital Corpsman Ashley Kilgore of Tuscon, Ariz. checking the vital signs of patients during a Pacific Partnership surgical screening at Port Moresby General Hospital.