

REDACTION CITATIONS

The red letters and numbers refer to specific exemptions of the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5 U.S.C. § 552) that protect the redacted (blacked out) information.

- (b)(6) & (b)(7)(C) denotes a redaction to protect personal privacy. Names and identities of personnel as well as references to administrative and non-judicial punishment are withheld because release of this information would clearly constitute or could be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of the individuals pursuant to exemptions (b)(6) and (b)(7)(C) of the Freedom of Information Act.

- (b)(5) denotes a redaction made because the passage was later disapproved or modified as part of the review process. It is considered predecisional and is protected by the deliberative process privilege under exemption (b)(5) of the Freedom of Information Act.
