MILITARY WHISTLEBLOWER REPRISAL

No person may take (or threaten to take) an unfavorable personnel action (UPA), or withhold (or threaten to withhold) a favorable personnel action (PA), in reprisal against any Service member (SVM) for making or preparing to make or being perceived as making or preparing to make a protected communication (PC).

A PC is any lawful communication with a Member of Congress or IG. Generally, any communication that a SVM reasonably believes to be a report of a violation of a law, rule, or regulation is also considered to be a PC. Also included is a SVM's participation in or assistance with an investigation or proceeding.

A PA is any action taken on a SVM that affects, or has the potential to affect, the SVM's military pay, benefits, or career. This may include a significant change in the duties or responsibilities of a SVM not commensurate with their grade/rate.

If the evidence establishes that the PA would have been taken, withheld, or threatened to be taken or withheld by a Responsible Management Official (RMO) without the PC ever occurring, then the complaint is not substantiated.

A causal connection between the PC and PA must be established by a preponderance of the evidence in order for reprisal to be substantiated.

Additionally, no SVM may be prevented from making or preparing to make a lawful communication to a Member of Congress or IG.
