

Process by Flushing Zone to Amend Health Advisory

Special Notes:

- Best case duration from start of system flushing to start of residential/non-residential flushing is approximately 12-17 days per zone
- Residential/non-residential flushing will proceed upon IDWST preliminary review and concurrence
- Best case duration from start of residential/non-residential flushing to DOH release of amended health advisory is approximately 25-27 days per zone

